Atlanta, Georgia, November 1, 1905.

Dear Sir,

For the Thanksgiving meeting I suggest the following program with such modifications as you see fit:

Memorial Meeting to the Friends of Freedom.
---

Under the auspices of the Niagara Movement, Thanksgiving Night, 1905.
---

In Memoriam Frederick Douglass, William Lloyd Garrison and Albion Tourgee.

Music.

Invocation.

Reading of the Declaration of Principles, Niagara Movement.

Introductory address: "The Friends of Freedom." (10 min.)

Address: Douglass. (10 min.)

Address: Garrison. (10 min.)

Address: Tourgee. (10 min.)

Closing Address: "The Niagara Movement." (10 min.)

Music.

Conclusion.

Furthermore, you of course know that Sunday, December 10 is the 100th anniversary of Garrison's birth. Can you not bring this to the notice of all prominent pastors in your city, and at the same time ask them to make their night meeting an occasion for emphasizing national aid to Negro education?

For this purpose I will send out a circular to be read in the churches and if possible you ought to secure a Niagara Movement man to speak on the subject in each prominent church. Possibly, a petition could be made ready for signature.

Stir up the brethren on the subject of prompt payment of dues.

Sincerely yours,

Secretaryial Letter No. 3.
