A proposed Platform for the Conference at Buffalo.

The Niagara Movement stands for
1. Freedom of speech and criticism.
2. Freedom of an unsubsidized Press.
3. Full manhood suffrage restricted only (a) by ignorance in cases where the ignorance is due to neglect of opportunity or (b) crime.
4. The abolition of all caste distinctions based simply on race and color.
5. The recognition of the principal of human brotherhood as a practical present creed.
6. The recognition of the highest and best human training as the monopoly of no class or race.
8. United effort to realize these ideals under a leadership of courage and ideals.