Office of the General Secretary
Atlanta University
Atlanta, Ga.

May 16, 1906.

Dear Colleague:

1. Note the letter below and act immediately.
2. How would St. Paul, Minn., late in August, one fare round trip, suit you for the annual meeting? Answer.

Sincerely yours,

My dear DuBois:

Hershaw’s Washington letter, on the 1st page of the Guardian of the 12th inst., understates the truth, rather than otherwise as to effect of the import and purport of the Foraker amendment of the rate-bill now being discussed in the U. S. Senate. Reading the Congressional Record of May 7th, I find that the effect of such amendment is to make "Jim Crow" cars operative and legal against inter-state passengers. It is the most vicious and abominable surrender of our rights ever perpetrated. Notify every N. W. man to see or write his Senators and Congressman protesting against the iniquitous business. The law is far better as it is now, although bad enough at that.

Sincerely yours,

Clement G. Morgan.
