The Niagara Movement assembled in annual session at 10 o'clock August 17, 1906.

A. M., General Secretary Dubois in the chair. The Rev. Dr. Hurst, of Baltimore, led the meeting in the Lord's prayer.

An Auditing Committee consisting of Messrs. Andrews of Mass., Crawford, of Conn., and Hawkins of Maryland, was by authority of the house appointed to audit the accounts of the past year.

Arthur S. Gray, of Washington, was elected recording secretary of the meeting.

The report of the Executive Committee was laid before the meeting by the General Secretary. The recommendations made therein were severally discussed and were duly adopted, except that in the case of amendments to Section 6 of the Constitution the nomenclature of the Committees were modified so as to provide for "Departments," instead of Leagues, Societies, Institutes, etc. Section as amended provided, therefore, for the following standing committees:

1. The Legal Department of the N. M.
2. The Suffrage Department do do
3. The Civil Rights Dept. do do
4. The Army and Navy Dept. do do
5. The N. M. Department for the Suppression of Crime
6. The N. M. Department of Education
7. The N. M. Department of Health
8. The N. M. Douglass Press Department
9. The Non-African Department of the N. M.
10. The Women's Department of the N. M.
11. The Junior Department of the N. M.
12. The Art Department of the N. M.
13. The N. M. Department of Economics.
14. The N. M. Department of Ethics and Religion.

Section 12 was amended to read as follows: The annual dues of members shall be $5.00 and of associate members not less than $1.00, this conclusion having been reached after a proposition to place the minimum dues for associate members at $2.00. A motion specifying providing that the sum of 50 cents per capita should be returned to State Secretaries out of the dues paid in by members from the several States also prevailed, while an amendment restricting such payments to those State Secretaries who had previously stated the necessity therefore was rejected.

The recommendation of the Executive Committee changing the honor date of the meeting in Knox of the Friends of Freedom from Thanksgiving Day of each year to "December 10, 1906, and on such date in subsequent years as the annual meeting shall direct" was unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. McGee of Minnesota it was agreed that when adjournment was taken it be until 9 o’clock of that date.

The General Secretary was authorized to make such verbal changes in the Constitution as were necessary in order to make it read consistently with the amendments herein adopted.

Authority was also given the General Secretary to appoint a Committee on Public Address, following which the meeting, in accordance with the motion of Mr. McGee took a recess until 9 P. M.

The report of the Executive Committee is submitted herewith.

The report of the Executive Committee is submitted herewith.

Section 10 of Constitution reads as follows, (as amended August 17)
