Mr. Murray sends the usual protest which is appended.

The General Secretary will not preside over the Conference,

In this absence that duty falls to the chairman of the Legal Department (see Constitution Amendment Section 4) and in his absence the committee will elect a chairman.

The members of the sub-committee (Heads of Department) are called for Conference only. They have no vote (see Constitution, section 6) on official matters.

Yours for Freedom,

[Signature]

General Secretary.
