The Fourth Annual Meeting of the Niagara Movement took place at Oberlin, O., August 31, September 1 and 2, on the grounds of Oberlin College. About fifty delegates, representing eleven states, were in attendance. The chief matters of business attended to were:

The reports of State Secretaries, showing nearly 400 members.

The reports of Departments, showing the successful prosecution of the Reid "Jim Crow" case against the Pullman Car Co., the organization of Women's Circles, and the progress of the John Brown Memorial Fund.

The Revision of the Constitution, the adoption of our address to the country, the decision to buy a permanent meeting place and Chatauqua, and to begin arrangements for celebrating the Jubilee of John Brown's Martyrdom in 1909, the Jubilee of Emancipation in 1913, and the Ten-centenary of the Landing of the Negro in America in 1919.

Mass Meetings were held at Warner Hall, Oberlin College; St. John's Church, Cleveland; and Dunbar Theatre, Columbus, O.
