June 23, 1907,

I hear that the

W. F. A. is in Europe.

June 23, 1907.

I hear that he wrote to you in April.

May 23, 1907. I write to him that you may give me the date to reply

for the treaty.
last three or four days I might take the morning train the 27th, be with you all for a last time.
I had wanted to get an article into the beginning meaning to write it the a few weeks ago, but a number of thing have taken
Prentice and your moment Cruelty because I think they have misunderstood it. Will you write me a A Gentle Zero. To Avoid Arrive, giv
me a programme of the meetings, letting me know there is the latest message. Moment I Can arrive with any purpose. You'll need a taxi, here you?
Can imagine you own whatever will make us feel...
I hope you had a good time.

Always yours,

Mary W. Chester.