Background on Eric Bascom

When he was fifteen or sixteen, Eric Bascom's life changed forever when he saw renowned jazz guitarist Wes Montgomery perform. Though Bascom had been playing guitar himself since he was young, seeing Montgomery opened his eyes to a completely new way of playing guitar and a completely new approach to music. Since that time, Bascom has been an avid listener, collector, and practitioner of jazz. He is currently performing as the Eric Bascom Trio with Ed Brainerd and Genevieve Rose.

Slim Gaillard and Bam Brown, "Opera in Vout," 1946. Illustration by David Stone Martin.

Contents of Collection

The Eric Bascom Collection of Jazz Recordings consists of hundreds of jazz 78 rpm records from the 1940s and 1950s, including a number of 78 books with beautifully illustrated covers. In addition to the records are player piano rolls, several of which were punched by Fats Waller, and a portable Walters Conley Phonola 78 record player.

Organization of the Collection

The collection is organized into two series:

- Series 1. Phonographs
- Series 2. Piano Rolls
