Dear Sir,

Perhaps this will seem like a strange request, but I am going to ask in the hope that you will see fit to fulfill it.

I am a farm housewife - the mother of an 8 year old daughter, Peggy.

Since in all probability I will be unable to leave her anything upon my death, I am making her a scrapbook.

It contains momentos from noted persons and places of the present day, and I would like to have something on each page that belongs to the subject personally.

Sir, would it be possible for you to send an autographed menu,

a paper napkin, cocktail stick and match folder from your famous club so that I may place them in her book?

I realize that this is asking quite a lot, but I've read about L'Abbaye and do so want it represented.

I am enclosing a piece of foil to wrap the matches in so that they will pass postal inspection.

I thank you for your kindness and may the Lord bless you.

Sincerely

Mrs. John T. Willis
